

PATH to PROSPERITY

YOU!
CAN BE AN ENTREPRENEUR

Klukwan Informational Meeting

Thursday, April 7, 2016
Chilkat Indian Village Office
2:00pm - 3:00pm

The Haa Aani Community Development Fund and the Nature Conservancy have partnered to bring this innovative business development competition back to southeast Alaska for its fourth year. P2P is open to individuals, for-profit businesses, or tribal entities. Applicants must be southeast Alaska residents.

Winners

Twelve semi-finalists will attend a weekend boot camp in Juneau to receive technical assistance in writing a business plan. Two business plans will be selected as finalists and each will receive an award of up to $40,000 for consulting and technical services to develop the business.

One-on-One Meetings Available

Can't make the meeting? To schedule a one-on-one appointment with the P2P administrators, contact Shawn Blumenshine at shawn.blumenshine@sealaska.com or call (907) 586-9251.

Important Dates and Deadlines

P2P information webinar - Tuesday April 5, 2016
Entry deadline - Sunday May 1, 2016
P2P 1st Round finalists announced - Tuesday June 7, 2016

Questions on Path to Prosperity?

For questions or more information please email Shawn Blumenshine or Paul Hackenmueller at P2P@Sealaska.com or call (907) 586-9251.

www.P2Pweb.org

HAA AANI

The Nature Conservancy

Path to Prosperity: A business development competition created to enhance the entrepreneurship capacity in coastal and underserved communities, using the innovation and business capacity of Southeast Alaska.

For additional information, please visit www.P2Pweb.org.