Dear Klukwan Community,

The Tribal Emergency Operations Center extends its utmost gratitude toward the community of Klukwan and their collective response to the high risk of exposure of COVID-19 public service announcement released on September 17, 2020. We had a high testing rate—number of persons tested in Klukwan— and did not receive a positive test. At this time, we are moving to a low risk level.

It is because of our community that we have continued to see zero cases. Mask use, sanitizing, and social distancing still is the best way to mitigate community spread. We encourage all people to be mindful of the risks of the novel coronavirus and act accordingly.

Operations will resume for the Chilkat Indian Village by appointment only. The Klukwan Mercantile will be open to the community following mask use and sanitization. The Klukwan School will release their plan for opening to parents soon.

Please contact the Tribal Emergency Operations Center if you have any further questions at eoc@chilkat-nsn.gov.

President,

Kimberley Strong
